

Celuform exceeds Barratt Home's Excellence in Service and Supply

The Celuform new build team were delighted to receive a letter of commendation from What House? House builder of the Year 2007 Barratt Homes.

The leading developer acknowledges Celuform's 'Excellence in Supply and Staff Knowledge', adding it has consistently performed against the already high levels demanded.

Gavin Forsyth, National Contracts Manager of Celuform comments: "It's a great third party endorsement of all the hard work and enthusiasm our team has put in for Barratt Homes. Exceeding developers' Service and Supply benchmarks resulting in delivery that delights them proves that our commitment to remain at the forefront of PVC-UE and PVC-U building products for new build is paying off."
